As you know, the left always places the blame somewhere else. Never ever do they accept they're the problem and search for a solution to correct their bad policies.

AARP = Advocates Against Republican Party

This article is another piece of propaganda designed to deflect responsibility from the Biden Administration's consistent failures, lack of action, and poor decisions. If AARP did indeed care about seniors it would write truthful articles that capture and expose the full scope of the issue. To exclude truth supports no one, and in doing so, makes for worthless organization.
