

Student Name:

myWSU ID:

Date:

Advisor:

---

Qualifying exam is designed to evaluate the student's readiness to complete the dissertation requirements. Student should have the needed background to perform the research and demonstrate the ability to conduct research. This exam has two parts, the first part would test the mastery in background related to the core area of study in the student's background.

Timed written exam