

How International Students Can Avoid Tuition Payment Scams

Take online security precautions

Take online security precautions. Always use secure connections (https://) and verify the website address. Be cautious of phishing emails and avoid clicking on suspicious links. Use strong, unique passwords and enable two-factor authentication. Never share your financial information online.

Always verify who you are speaking to

Always verify who you are speaking to. Contact your university's financial aid office or international student services for assistance. Verify the identity of anyone who claims to be from the university. Do not provide your personal information to anyone who is not a verified university representative.

Do not share your information

Do not share your information. Do not provide your personal information, such as your name, address, phone number, or social security number, to anyone who is not a verified university representative. Do not provide your credit card information or bank account details to anyone who is not a verified university representative. Do not provide your passport information to anyone who is not a verified university representative.