Major Components of a Research Paper

1. Introduction:

Answers...

- Background: What is the context of this problem?
- Rationale: Why is this research important?
- Problem Statement: What is it we don't know?
- Objectives: What steps will the research take to try and fill gaps?
- Scope: Is the study limited to a special geographical area or to only certain aspects of the situation?

2. Methodology:

Answers...

- How was the data collected or generated?
- How was it analyzed?
- Why was a particular method or procedure chosen?

3. Results:

Includes...

- Statement of Results: Results are presented in a format that is accessible to the reader: graphs, tables, diagrams, or written text.
- Explanatory Text: All graphs, tables, diagrams and figures should be accompanied by text that guides the reader's attention to significant results. The text simplifies results, and highlights significant trends or relationships.

4. Discussion:

Includes...

- Explanation of Results: Comments on whether or not the results were expected and presents explanation.
